

Wool Industries  Australia

(Formerly Federation of Australian Wool Organisations Inc. (FAWO))

Australian Wool Industry Medal 2019 Recipient

Mr Darren Spencer

Darren has been involved in the Shearing Industry since 1982 as a shearer, contractor, grower, woolclasser, wool broker, transporter and industry leader and advocate.

In his 36 years in the industry Darren has employed thousands, trained hundreds more, been a leader for change and improvement in occupational health and safety and freely given his experience and time to assist others and improve the shearing industry that he is so passionate about for all involved.

In addition to his role as President of WASIA Darren also represents the WA Shearing Industry on many industry working groups and organisations.
