

(Formerly Federation of Australian Wool Organisations Inc. (FAWO))

Australian Wool Industry Medal 2018 Recipient

Mr Jim Marler

Jim's nomination was supported by Australian and international referees.

- 49 years of service to the wool industry
- Expertise in metrology and standards is recognised globally
- Former CSIRO (1968-86) and National Technical Manager, AWTA (1986-2008)
- Architect of IWTO-0 which is the test method for developing test methods
- Actively involved in Interwool Labs (1993-2016) as President (2005-16). Jim's involvement continued in retirement
- IWTO Raw Wool Group Deputy Chair and Chair (1990-98)
- A significant author and co-author of reports and submissions to IWTO
- Jim is recognised for his ability to translate highly technical documents into layman language
- Jim's opinion and advice is respected by his peers